Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, On June 3, 1950, a girl child was born and christened Lynne Nora; and,

WHEREAS, Lynne received diplomas from Sacramento City College, the University of California, and the University of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Lynne married James Patrick Groves, and they are blessed with three children, Kevin Sharon and Jay, and two cats, Kato and Copper (some times known as "Big Red", setting the stage for the next major event in Lynne's life--grandmotherhood; and,

WHEREAS, Lynne is employed as secretary of the Department of Corrections for the state of South Dakota, but her usefulness is drawing quickly to a close as she approaches the age of Geritol, dentures, prunes and Medicare; and,

WHEREAS, Lynne DeLand has reached her FORTIETH birthday, an event which will end her trustworthiness and relegate her social life to rocking chairs and lap rugs; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to proclaim to all of South Dakota that Lynne DeLand is just plain OLD:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 3, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I urge all of Lynne's many friends and relatives to mock her and rub it in, because she is now a member in good standing of the "Over-the-Hill Gang."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirtieth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
